9     <h1>Here you can learn all about who Jonathan Pater is!</h1>
10
11    Hello everybody! My name is Jonathan Pater (my nickname is 12      Jonny) and I am a freshman here at the Ohio State
13      University.
14      Currently, I am a pre-CSE major, and the experience that got 15      me
16      interested in computer science was my Introduction to Java
17      Programming
18      class that I took during my junior year of high school.
19      Outside of
20      school, I enjoy doing things like hanging out with friends, 21      working
22      out, and watching sports. This year I am excited about 23      meeting new
24      people around campus and forming new friends as the year
25      goes on.
26      Specifically in CSE 2221, I am most excited about enhancing 27      my
28      knowledge in Java programming and learning new and 29      fascinating things I
30      can do as a programmer. Overall, I'm just excited to be 31      living in a
32      new environment and learning new things!
